Destination Anywhere

Around every corner at Magnet, there are different opportunities waiting to be pursued. What may be good for one student may not be good for another. These chances that we are granted serve as stepping stones in our journey through life. Often when we are just starting out, our destination is unclear. With determination and perseverance, we can travel any road. Through knowledge these roads become straighter and less bumpy. However, we must have the dedication to conquer these paths. All in all, it's destination anywhere.

Destination Anywhere

Seeking a Destination. Mr. Pardue dreams of destinations he has yet to see.

Big Top City. Chicago is a beautiful place to be one's destiny.

Walking like a Pigeon. A pigeon struts to his next destination on the streets of Florence, Italy.

All Those People. Everyday, people walk to new destinations; everyone on different roads of life.

Our destiny exercises its influence over us even when, as yet, we have not learned its nature: it is our future that lays down the law of our today.

There is always one moment in childhood when the door opens and lets the future in.

~Graham Greene

Chowin' Down! Juniors Elise Judd and Josh Lesnewski share a laugh over their lunch.

Pedestrians Crossing

The Magnet student population has always been known for one thing: its individuality. Individuality doesn't just encompass our various styles of dress, it also surrounds the various activites that we participate in, in and out of school. This year we are taking a look at the month by month activities that make us who we are. From class skits, to battle of the Bands, to Coffeehouse, every thing that happens at Magnet is a glimpse into our unique way of life. Here's a glance into our STUDENT IIFE!

ROADS to RELAXATION

SUMMER

The best thing about summer is having: no class, no homework, no teachers.
Matt Walden, Freshman

Everybody has their own idea on which direction to flee when summer comes. The one thing everyone has in common is that they hope to have fun! Some choose to hit the streets and find a job; others head straight for their room to regain all sleep lost during the school year. A great deal of our Magnet students simply goof off and have a good time. No matter what you choose to do, you will probably enjoy the time off from school.

The first thing I do when summer comes is get out of Shreveport!
Ariel Hill, Sophomore

When I hear the word summer, I think of the hot sun and going to the beach.
Trey Johnston, Sophomore

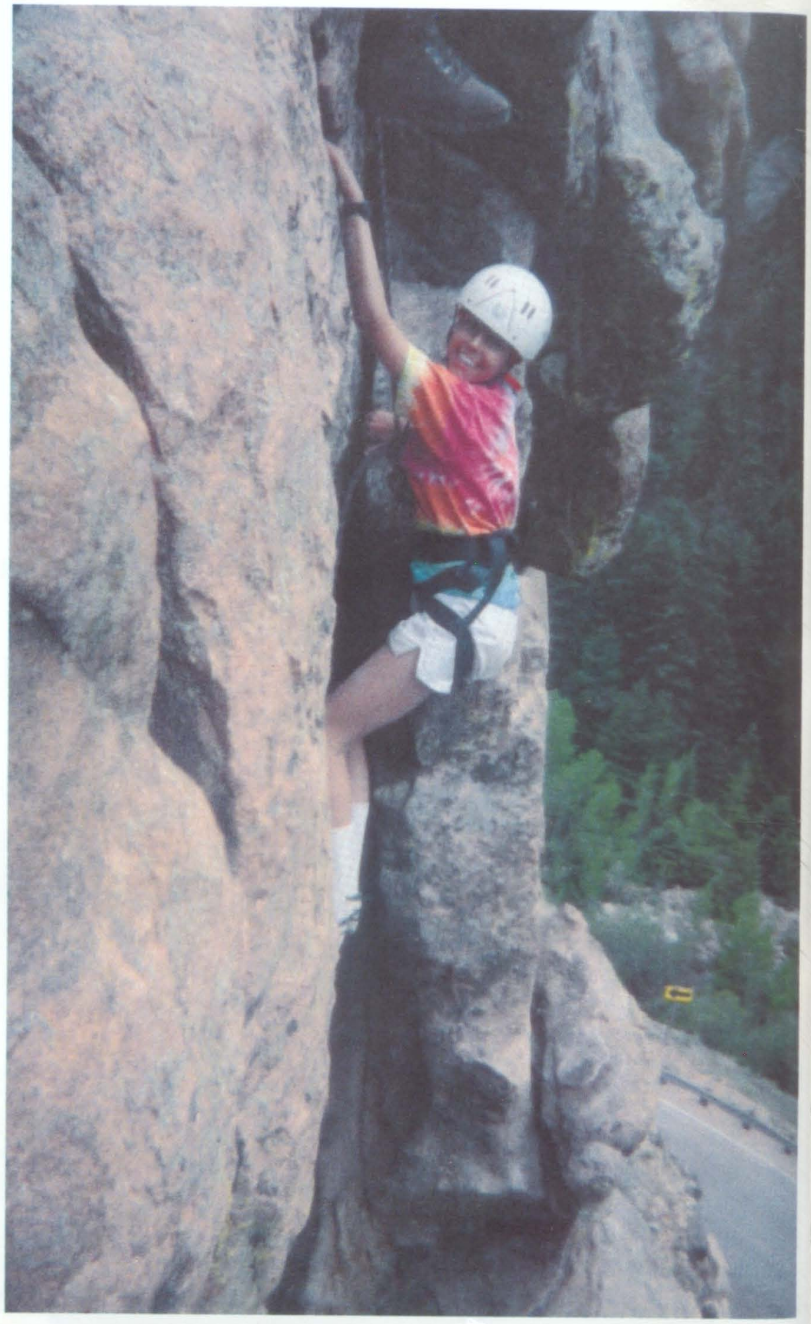
Almost everyone takes at least one trip during the summer; whether it be to a foreign country, another U. S. state, or to Bunkie, La, you are bound to create a few memorable experiences that will be remembered later.

Summer is a great time to have fun with learning by taking trips.
Mary Kathleen Baldwin, Senior

Summer is frequently associated with a time away from school to relax and have some fun! Some relieve the stress of school doing vigorous activities while others achieve it by becoming a "couch potato." It is not how you achieve relaxation, but that you achieve it. For this reason, summer is looked upon with delight.

Cliffhanger! Sophomore Lindsey Strickland spent part of her summer rock climbing in Colorado with a group. She enjoyed the thrill of hanging above the ground at a high elevation.

Diggin it! Senior Charles Mc Collum was given a personal tour of the dig at Jamestown by Mr. Pardue. Mr. Pardue spends his summers in Virginia at the Jamestown dig discovering artifacts from the first colonies of the 17th century.



Out of Place? Senior Frank Moore spent his summer sailing about the islands of Fiji. This photograph was taken on one of the several islands he visited on his summer trip. He appears to be just a bit out of place among these four women of Fiji!

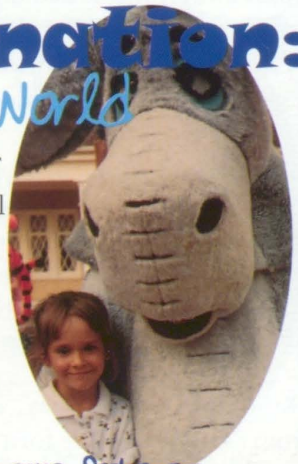
Floating on the job! Juniors Jordan Gedeon, Laura Rozeman, Lauren Szot, Stephen Hampton, Katie Berg, and Jeff Szot were lifeguards for Riverside this summer. In between shifts, they relaxed and took advantage of their cool surroundings on a hot day.

"How did you spend most of your summer?" Was it:
A) Working
B) At the lake
C) At the beach
D) In a foreign country
E) Just goof ing around
When a selection of Magnet students were asked this question, 20% chose A, 10 % chose B, 10% chose C, 5% chose D, and 55% chose E.

The Top Ten things to do during your summer vacation:
1) Sleep in
2) Go to the lake
3) Get a tan
4) Go to the beach
5) Do absolutely nothing
6) Earn some money
7) Get out of town
8) Spend time with your friends
9) Discover your wild side
10) Take a road trip.

Chilling! Freshman Ryan Gedeon uses her free time to catch some rays.

Destination: Disney World



Disney World is thought upon as one of the greatest places for all people. No matter if you are young or old, there is something for you to do there. Julia Bumpers used to spend her summers with Mickey!

Julia Bumpers, Sophomore

Back to School! Already??

SEPTEMBER

My first day was depressing because all the hot girls were upperclassmen.
Mark Hand, freshman

How could summer have gone by so fast?! Yes, once again it is time for school. Time for waking up early, time for stressing over homework and tests, and unfortunately, no time for being lazy.

The talent show was very dissapointing. The band that I liked didn't win.
N. Chrissoverges, junior

The 1998 Talent Show, Talent in the Park, was extremely successful. From the great MC's, to the hilarious skits, to the talents of all the performers, the night was definitely an entertaining one.

The dance was really hip because I liked groovin' with the freshmen.
E. Gaensehehals, sophomore

If you weren't at the back to school dance then you missed a great time. There was a large turn out with people from all grades. They came to get down with their friends and they had a lot of fun.

I enjoyed the dance because I got to check out the freshman chicks.
Jonathan Nierman, senior

The theme for this year's dance was "Studio 54." This took away from the traditional Hawaiian theme and put in a more 70's atmosphere. Students came decked out in disco clothes and platform shoes. September ended with a big swing.

Work it Girl! Senior Natasha Wilson, one of the MC's of the talent show, impersonates Tina Turner while singing one of her hit songs.

Piano Power! Senior Karen Dent plays Raining in Baltimore, by Counting Crows, for her performance in the Talent Show.

True Love!! No, actually Mitchell Glass shows off his strength to Joseph Livergood at the school dance.

All in all, September is a pretty cool month of the year. You're probably thinking, "What are you talking about?" Well, We'll tell you. Did you know that September's birth stone is a sapphire? Septemeber 1 was the day World War II started. On the 7, Queen Elizabeth of England was born. On the 16, the Mayflower From sailed from England. On the 17, the present U.S. Constitution was signed. TheSeptember Flower is morning glory. In late September, the autumnal equinox takes place around the 22 or 23. Also, September 26 is the first day of school!!

October

I loved the seductive dancing of danceline compounde by their sporting the frumpy wig fad.

Geoff Dancy, junior

Magnet's student body displayed their creativity at the halloween spirit ralley, from the elaborate costumes of danceline to the unique class skits. Like all other years, no matter how lame the seniors were, they won anyway..

My scariest moment was when my parents heard my friends say they were bringing "drinks" to a Halloween party.

Kathryn Ramey, junior

Every one gets scared sometimes and because of Halloween, October is a frightful month. There is nothing more scary, though, than parents busting you before going out with friends.

Kids probably left crying, but face painting gave me an outlet for my interpretaion of the Batman bat.

William Childs, junior

Volunteering can really make a person feel good even when others don't quite appreciate their work. Remember it's the thought that counts. At this year's revel many Magnet student were able to experience just that.

"The best part of Ugly Miss was the rendition of NKOTB's 'the right stuff.' It was absoulute perfection.

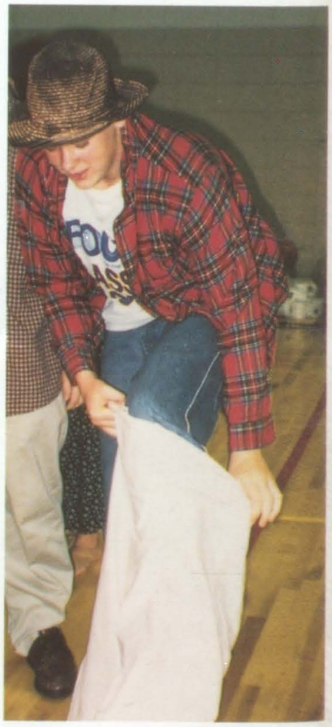
John Todd McDaniel, junior

Most people say that beauty pageants are degrading to women. Well not this one as many guys gathered to join in the festivities of Magnet High's Ugly Miss Contest. It featured a wide selection of our young men parading around in women's clothing.

Hey, Girlie, Over Here! Allie Dyson struts her stuff making sure she's noticed on Halloween night.

Don't Move! He doesn't move a muscle as Emily Eaves does her artwork.

Where are the Dalmations? Danceline, dressed in their Cruella DeVil costumes, entertain all class with their uniqe dancing skills.



Hurry, but Don't Fall! A freshman hurries to get in a pair of pants while competeing.

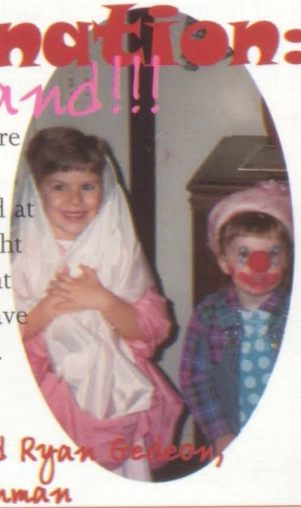
Take It Off! Danny Beach undresses so he can get ready for the next act at the Ugly Miss Contest.

There She is, Miss Ugly! Jason McKibben recieves his prize as 1998's Ugly Miss Contest winner.

Destination: Candyland!!!

" My sister and I were going to go trick or treating. We stopped at any house with a light on. We usually went back again if they gave us a lot of chocolate. We couldn't get enough of it."

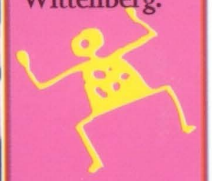
Jordan and Ryan Gedeon, junior and freshman



October derives its name from the Latin word meaning eight because it was the eighth month on the Roman calendar.

Mohandas Gandhi was born on October 2, 1869.

On October 31, 1517, Martin Luther nailed his 95 theses to the door of a church at Wittenberg.



The first "Model T" Ford was put on the market on October 1, 1908.

Noah Webster, editor of the Webster dictionary, was born on October 16, 1758. Halloween developed from ancient festivals of the dead.

November

Eat, Drink, and Be Merry!

"The England/Scotland trip was a really great learning experience."

Courtney Bryan, junior

From November 28 to December 1, Magnet students joined Ms. Braunig and Ms. Sledge to tour England and Scotland. They visited castles, famous landmarks, and had the opportunity to shop in some of the major cities of the world.

"I loved the Homecoming dunking booth, especially when Edward was in it."

Lynette Shelton, senior

The Homecoming picnic was held November 20 this year, a week later than usual. The entire student body was able to enjoy a sunny but muddy day outside while participating in activities such as the dunking booth.

"Learning to swing dance was really fun and a nice change in our class routine."

During the end of November, dance instructors from Dance Unlimited came to Magnet to instruct the gym classes. Swing has made a comeback within the last year, and most students agreed that it was a fun way to break the everyday routine.

"For Thanksgiving Break I went to the Bahamas and swam with sharks."

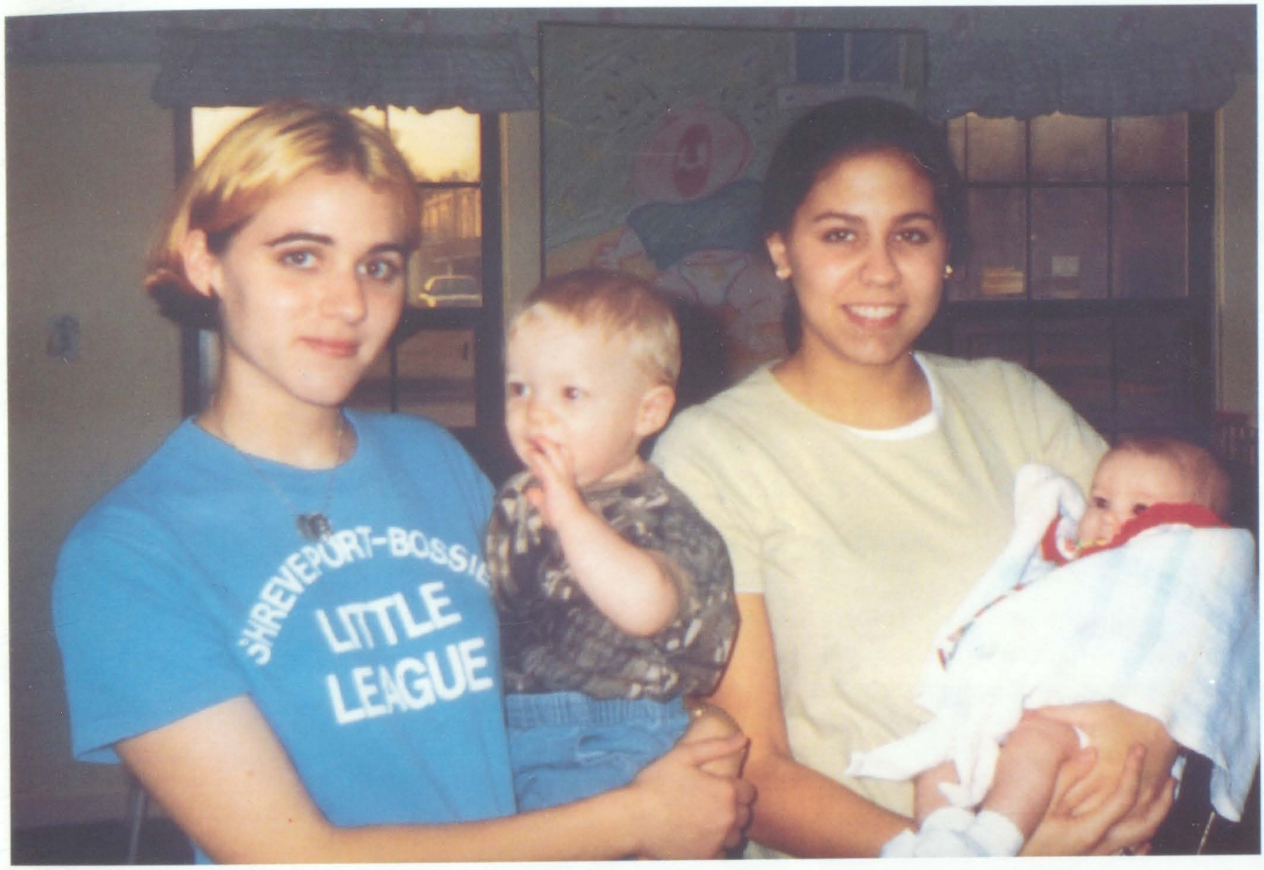
Ryan Horton, junior

Thanksgiving break is a time for students to take time off from school, eat, and relax. Many used this time to visit with friends and family, but others took a more exotic approach and went on family vacations.

Cheese! Senior Mara O'Bryan and her brother, former graduate Devin, pose together after eating a hefty Thanksgiving meal.

Life's a picnic. Seniors Chandana Kankani, Kim Bond, and Suzanne Davis take time out of the Homecoming Picnic festivities to chat with each other and eat some of the food.

Getting our groove on. Sam Neal and Geneva Barker, dance instructors from Dance Unlimited, came to Magnet to teach gym students how to ballroom dance.



Oh, baby! Sophomore Terra Bouchet and senior Emily Langley spent part of their Thanksgiving break working for Tiny Tots Daycare.

You're cool. Dave Wallace, Brandon Tice, Caroline Traylor, Jordan Braunig, and Jessica Sledge pose outside of a London shop while touring England.

I've got rhythm! Senior Marcie Cloud leads the senior section in "making rain" during the Homecoming spirit rally.

Destination: Toledo Bend

"One summer eight years ago, my family went to Toledo Bend to go fishing. I caught this fish, and at the time I thought it was really big. I was so proud of myself."

Doug Smith, senior

Novem is the Latin word for nine, because in the Roman calendar November was the ninth month.

This month monarch butterflies migrate to the southern United States.

"Once Upon A Time..."

Homecoming '99

"Homecoming was awesome. We totally hogged the dance camera."

Jason Lavergne, senior

Starting a bit unusual this year, the Homecoming picnic was delayed due to the cold, wet, rainy weather. But no fear, it didn't stop us from going to the dance. Rain nor sleet nor hail nor shine could keep us away.

"Why party after the dance, when you can party in the hotel room at the Sheraton."

Connor Matlock, senior

The theme for this year was"Once Upon a Time." There was a wonderful backdrop for pictures and the room was decorated beautifully to support this theme.

"Thank god for friends like Connor!"

Maggie Caplis, junior

As the night moved on, shoes were kicked off to dance and at 10pm, court was announced. Members included some old faces, but mostly a new crew faced the student body this year. Court members--old and new--looked great.

"My friend Meg and her date wore very tacky but cute outfits. It was a really creative idea."

Tess Vaugn, junior

The dance ended at midnight,but the real fun was at the after-parties. Some students rented hotel rooms and invited their friends, while some threw large parties at their houses. Whatever the case or wherever the party, the magic of the night lasted well into the morning hours. The evening was definitely a once-in-a-lifetime experience.

~98% ate dinner, took pictures, went to the dance, and partied later

~27% went with boy/girlfriends, 50% with a good friend, and 23% went with a dream date

"This year Homecoming was at the Sheraton. That place is so much nicer. More people danced there, than they did at LSUS last year. It was the best."

Stacie Ballard, senior

"The best memory of my freshman homecoming was when Tyson Hubbard split his pants."

John Leach, freshman

Dashing through the snow...

December

December is the best month because of the snow. However, I used to get snowed in when it snowed too much.

Baihan Gu, sophomore

Being the season of giving, December proves to be one of the most cheerful, yet one of the most stressful, months of the year. Running around for that last-minute perfect present, or having to deal with Aunt Pinchy-cheeks can be most

I was creative this past Christmas because I was low on cash, and presents are more meaningful that way too.

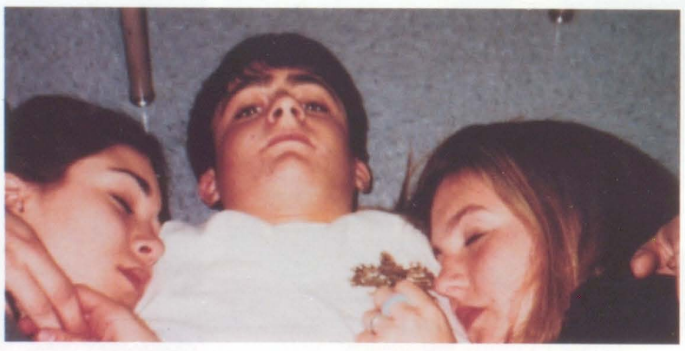
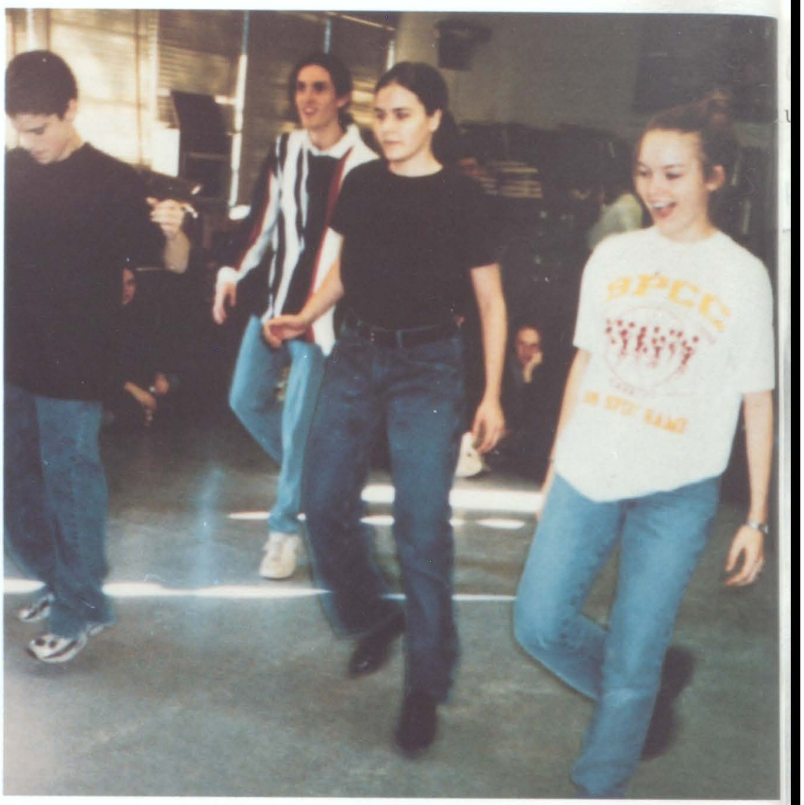
Melanie Barrow, junior terrifying. Nevertheless, the highpoint of December is obviously the two-week reprive, along with the last big party of the year on New Year's Eve. December is the first cold month of the year, and while some students bundle up and fight the cold, others try to tough it out and keep summer as long as possible. The weather was bearable, though, as was the spirit consuming students. Christmas parties ensued the last week of class: for the month, and for the year.

One Christmas I ended up getting a remote controlled Barbie motorcycle, along with a real one for my sister and I to ride!

Christi Hay, senior

As children, we wait all year for December and the long anticipated arrival of Santa. Although the feeling may not be as intense as we grow older, the excitement of vacation and merriment absorb everyone. It's the "frosty month," but more importantly it's the month of festivity.





Work it! Nick Todaro, Matthew Akers, Vicki Kintner, and Jennifer Powers do the jig in Pardue's class. Concentrate Nick.

DRADDLE, DRADDLE, DRADDLE... Who said Christmas is the only holiday in December? Ben Posner does the draddle dance.

Where's 6th hour? Julie Barro, Joey Lawler, and Jessica Sledge take a break. That holiday bustle really wears people down.

O'Neill all the way! For her Christmas break, Heather Davis took a little shimmy down to Hawaii, catching up on some sun and visiting the natives. Here she bonds with a really friendly lifeguard.

HO, HO, HO YEAH! Lechelle Emanuel digs in, What goodies are awaiting her this year for Christmas?

Destination: North Pole!!

"Santa Claus took time out of his busy toymaking schedule to pose in a picture with me when I was four. He was quite the intimidating guy back then."

Megan King, 1985

December comes from the Latin word, decem, meaning ten. On the Roman calender, December was the tenth month (March being the first).

"The sun that brief December day, Rose cheerless over hills of gray, And, Darkly circled, gave at noon A sadder sight than waning moon."
-John Greenleaf Whittier

Orville Wright made the first air flight in North Carolina in December, 1903.

Isaac Newton was born on Christmas Day, 1642.

Louisiana went under the control of the United States in the December of 1803.

The Start of a New Year!!

January

"Although I dread midterms, I get to go snow skiing afterwards."
Emily Eaves, senior

January is known as the month of midterms. This is one of the most dreaded times of the school year. Everyone knows, this is a time of grueling, hours-upon-end studying for those dreaded two-hour tests.

"The only part about this year's superbowl that I liked was the commercials."
Travis Hart, junior

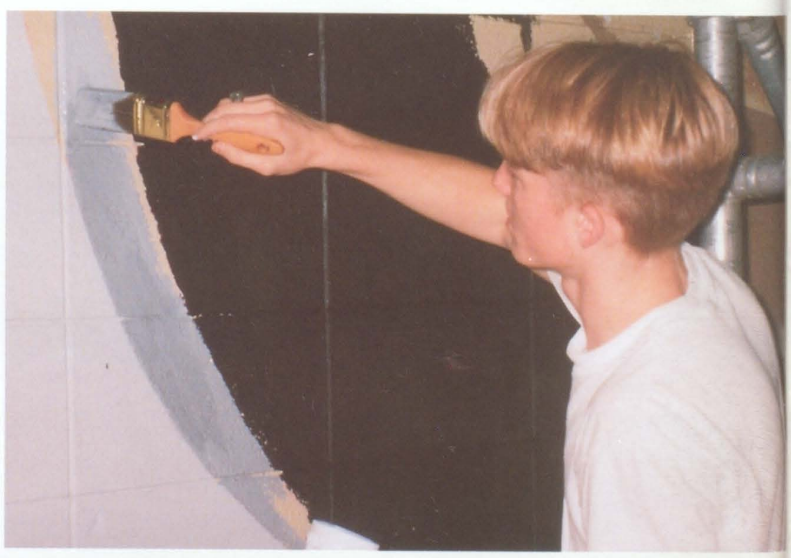
January means one thing to those avid football fans...Superbowl. This year the Denver Broncos and the Atlanta Falcons dueled it out on the field in Miami, Florida. In the end the Broncos came out victorious.

"I'm excited about the people that might come here next year."
David Richardson, senior

Sunday, January 22, was our annual Open House. Every year the prospective freshmen from around the parish come to check out the wide variety of academic classes and the organizations that Magnet offers.

"Spray painting the car was the best relief of midterm stress."
Calesha Ellis, junior

Every month this school year the senior class is gettting involved in school spirit by sponsoring and participating in an activity. This month the seniors had their annual stress-relief picnic in which they were allowed to "relieve stress" by spray-painting an old car.



Fencing is fun! Senior Rusty Leach explains fencing to a prospective ninth-grade parent at the Open House.

Leaving our mark. Senior Danny Beach helps paint the senior mural that he designed.

Luxury starts here. This is the car from senior stress-relief picnic. It looks as if many students should feel much better.

Aren't I cute! Junior Mike White shows off his warm fuzzies while at Happenings #37, an Episcopal church retreat.

Come to Magnet! Mrs. Reed informs a prospective student of the many foreign languages available at this school.

Abraham Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation on January 1, 1863.

If this isn't Love? What is Wrong Way

I broke up with this guy because he lied on me to his friends while we were dating.

Lechelle Emanuel, junior

In life there are good relationships and there are bad. Everyone will experience the bad so we must be ready for them. When times become their lowest lift your head up high and say, "Well, at least I dumped him!"

My girlfriend and I broke up because she was cheating on me. After that I couldn't stand her for months.

William Wall, freshman

Cheating is not a good thing. It ruins relationships and causes friendships to end. Although if it is inevitable, then make sure it is followed by an apology. Friends are hard to come by so why loose them for nothing.

My boyfriend and I argue but because we are right for eachother, we always make up.

Laura Cummings, junior

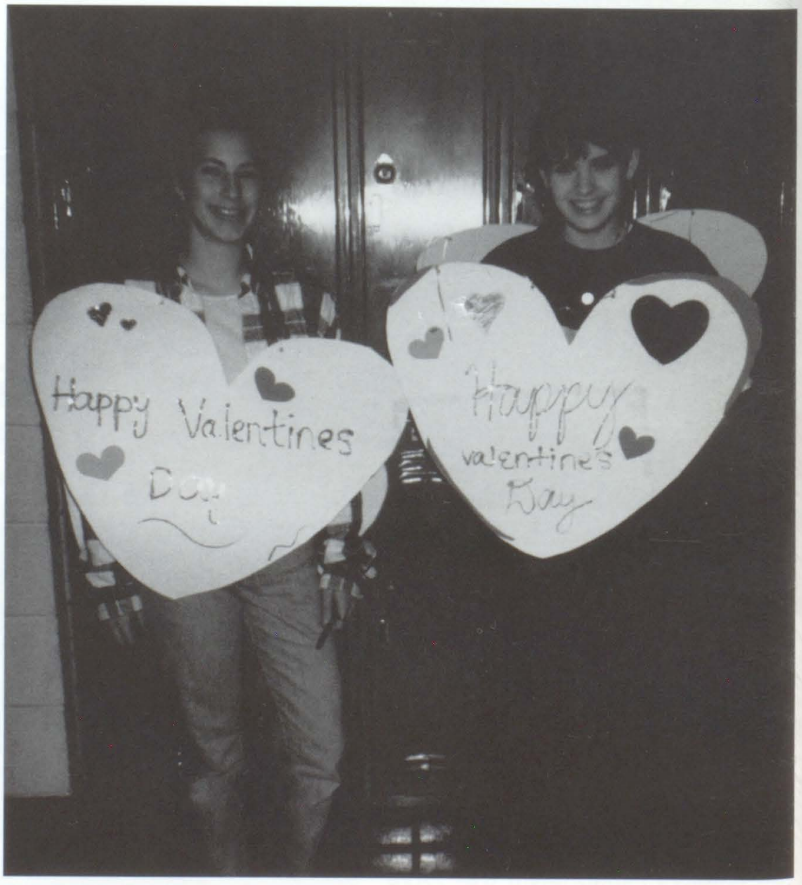
Relationships breeze in and out of a person's high school life, but the key is to find common ground and steer each other in the right direction.

A bad date that I had included a boring guy and going Dutch.

Cassie Jones, junior

There are always going to be those horrible dates, where you're constantly checking your watch, waiting for the night to be over, but experiences such as those build character, knowing what to avoid next time.

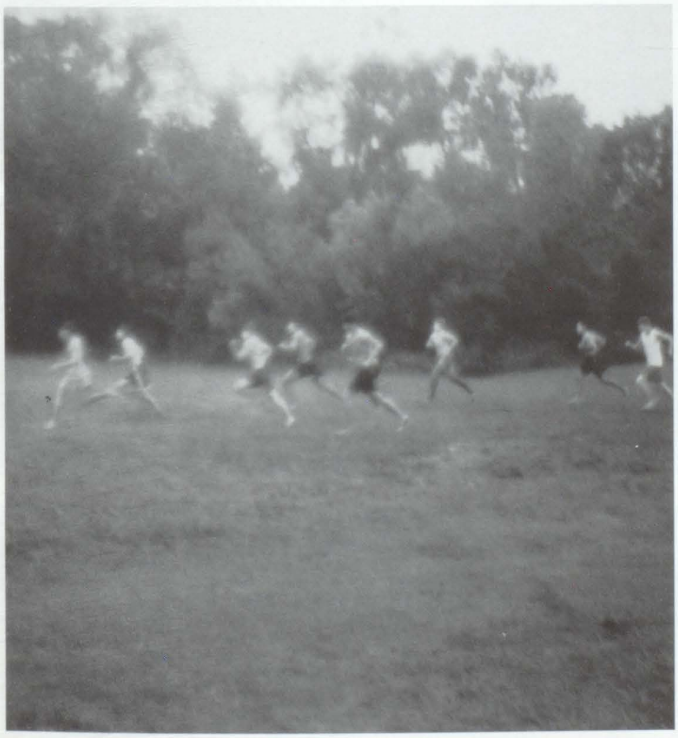
Happily Ever After! Josh Porter and Crystal Burkhart stop in their busy love lives to show everyone how happy they are together.

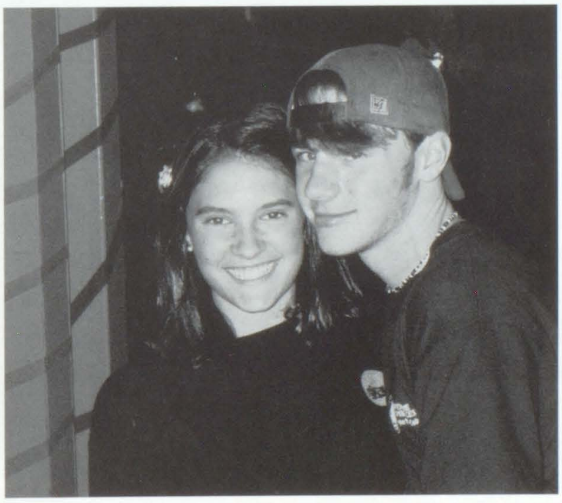


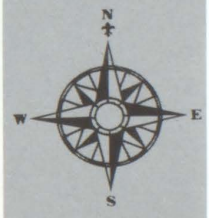
You are my sunshine! Christine O'Connor and Rheannon Coon hold themselves back from singing and spreading Valentine love to Magnet students as part of the annual Z Club singing Valentines.

Cupid, the Roman god of love, had both cruel and happy qualities.

Henry VIII had six wives, cut off a couple of their heads, and even split from the Church just for a divorce... How's that for angst?







According to a poll taken by Laura Cummings and Cassie Jones, 92.357% of relationships fail, miserably. The other percent have secret relationships with other people. Which category do you fall in?

LOVE IS IN THE AIR!!

"I can't believe Purgatory didn't win."
John Bentrop, freshman

Battle of the Bands started off our busy month. This was an action packed event where nine bands competed for the title "Best Band." We all enjoyed listening to each band as they performed.

"Valentines is a special day for loved ones."
Dione Caldwell, senior

Valentines Day always has that sentimental value for those cute couples. The roses, sweet notes, and candy make our hearts drop with all the sweetness in the air. All the lovey- dovey people surround us wherever we go.

"I didn't like the parades starting early this year."
Lindsey Monahan, senior

Mardi Gras is anticipated every year. We all love the food, fun, and of course, the parades. "Throw me something mister!!!!!" is a sound heard throughout the streets. This is a time of joy and excitement for the young and old.

"It was unfair that the skits got taken away from us."
Michelle Beauvais, sophomore

The spirit rally is always fun. We love the skits, the spirit, and the enthusiasm shown by all. Each class enjoys competing against the other classes to be the class with the best skit and the most spirit. The skits are hilarious but the excitement and fun is the highlight of the day.

"The Guitar Man." The daring Mr.Allen struts his stuff as he plays his guitar for the senior skit at the Mardi Gras spirit rally.

We are the freshmen. These crazy freshmen guys dress as girls to perform their skit in the spirit rally.

Everlasting love. Brett Venable and Ellie O'brien express their love.

Throw me something mister! These Magnet students love Mardi Gras.

My junior year has been one to remember. It has been filled with good friends and many moments that I will cherish always. Yearbook won't be the same without the seniors, but your guidance will supply those who are left with what we need to have a great yearbook next year. Joni, Nicole: thanks for being such sweethearts. You will always be remembered. Good luck and God bless everyone.

Cassie

I think this would be an appropriate time to wrap up all loose ends. Jeff, thanks for pulling me through all our deadlines, I would also like to say, "You're cool, a real winner there, Fetful" Lauren, we all know, "You're skrued." Julie, thanks for always being done ahead of time and making the rest of us "slackers" stand out. Cassie, thanks for introducing us to your cheese and salsa mix. Nicole G., thanks for popping an attitude with Kennedy when needed. Nicole M., wish you were here. Laura C., I love your necklaces, notice the plural form. Jennifer, thanks for the help with 4-H. I hated that page. Joni, I promise I will never touch your box again. On behalf of everyone, thanks Laura R. for the smiles, you make us all in a better mood. Lastly, Sara, love ya to death, and "You know what you can do." Goodbye to yearbook staff. Mrs. McGuire, I will miss you! Suz, thanks for being my best friend through everything. Good luck everyone!

Paige

When I came into this class, I never expected to become such good friends with everyone. Joni, Nicole, Nikki, Paige, and Sara - thank you for all your help, and I wish "you guys" the best of luck in the years to come. For all of my senior friends - thanks for all the fun times. We have shared so many memories that I will always cherish. And finally to the senior soccer players: Erin, Julie, Laney, Leigh, Lesley, Nicolle, and Trisha - the tears, the laughter, the pain, and the victories - we've been through it all. It's been a pleasure playing with you guys. Good luck!

Lauren

As the year comes to a close, it makes me realize how fast time goes by. Next year I will be a senior - that's kind of scary. I couldn't have asked for anything else. I am so thankful for my friends and my family who have been there for me through the good and bad. As for the seniors, I wish you the best of luck in college. I hope you are successful in whatever you do. I have so many memories that I will cherish for the rest of my life. I love you all. Thanks for everything.

Love, Laura R.

In the past 4 years I've found that your forever friends are those that you leave behind but who always end up on your doorstep. I wait for the day when I hear a knock on my door, and there you are. I know that bad chickies will live forever, that wishing on stars helps in the long run, and that yearbook will always be the best way to "run errands." I'll miss all of my staffettes, and Jeff next year. Until the someday and sometime we meet again, I love you all.

Grosses Bises,
nicole

When the year started I wanted NOTHING more than to go back to summer and everything about it. But this year proved to me that just because we move on doesn't mean we move away. We all found out a little bit more about who we are, and we'll all come away from this just a little bit older and more wise. It won't be the same without you seniors next year. Better- yes, the same - no (kidding). Good luck in all your endeavors guys. You're ALL tops.

Laura C.

This year on yearbook, along with all of highschool, has been a great experience, but it would not have been what it was without all of the friends I made. Thanks to Julie for being prompt, Laura C. for wearing great surf clothes, Jennifer for being sane through the madness, Nicole G. for all of your help, Jeff for being so "cool," Lauren for letting us stuff you in a box, Laura R. for making us laugh, Cassie for bringing food, and most of all to Paige who will "always" be my friend (no matter where you go). Thanks also to Emily for being my best friend through it all.

Sara

It's been a tough year, but I've enjoyed every minute of it. Being on the yearbook staff has truly made it a challenge. Thank you Maggie, Becca, and Paige for helping me out with quotes and pictures. I would be a nervous wreck without you. K-T, you really saved me when you fixed my camera. Thanks a million. What a relief it is to meet a deadline with the help of friends. The seniors will be greatly missed, but the rest of us will have to enter a new year with a new staff. We can handle it, though. Goodluck to all the seniors in the future. I'll see the rest of you next year. I can't wait!

Dear Magnet,

It's been a great 4 years here. I've met many new people, experienced many new things, and made great friends along the way. Now that it's over, I'll always have those memories to last me forever. Thank you to all my friends for always being there for me. You guys are the best, and I love you all lots and bunches.

Princess Nicole

Hello kind friends! As I turn the final page of my memory book that has been created over the past four years, I see that there are many destinations to come. I'm off in a new direction, but before I leave, I want to take a quick look back. To Cinnamon Boy - I cherish the time we spent together and wish you all the love and luck in life. Never forget March 15, 1996, at 11:11 p.m., and let this remind you that wishes do come true. I love you. To my Wax - Don't get into too much trouble your senior year - but have the time of your life. Just remember when we talked about salt and all those times people thought we were twins! I love you, lil' sis. To Ponyboy - This year wouldn't have been the same without you. I will always hold our memories close to my heart. Keep flying and someday we'll meet again. I love you, always. To Rider - It's all about the karma! I love you! As for now, I'm going on a lionhunt, and you know what? I'M NOT AFRAID!

Love always,
Joni (Chelsey)

Seniors -

To Joni, Nicole, Paige, Sara, and NiKKi, thank you for showing me that in the end, it is the fun times that we take with us that really matter. To those few that I have known forever: thanks for sharing your lives with me; I have enjoyed every minute of it. To that one person whom I have laughed with, cried over, and felt every emotion about: you mean more to me than you realize. To all those taking their first step into the world: Good luck!

Love always,
Julie

To all the yearbook seniors: It's been a hectic year, but we made it through without any casualties. Paige and Sara, I just want to let you know that I will miss you greatly and also "You're cool." NiKKi and Joni, we will always be the "originals," and no one will ever be as experienced in yearbook as we were. As for the returning juniors, next year will be a great one because we have learned a lot from each other. Good luck to everyone!

Jeff
